

Book Fair:

Thank you for visiting our Book Fair. Miss Galvin who led on this was taken aback by the excitement around Reading for Pleasure. The grand total exceeded all expectation and the Book Fair awarded School £400 of books for children to read in our library. Thank you everyone for your support!

LFC Champ:

On Monday evening, one of our Y6 pupils shone as an ambassador for Northway at Anfield Football Stadium. He was selected to play in front of 10 000 people through the LFC Foundation. He kept a clean sheet and made a fantastic block at the end of the game which ended 3-0. I was told he almost scored a goal 'top bins'.

Amazingly, Klopp came onto the pitch to have a chat and a handshake. We are so proud of you! What a memory and what a night!

Notes from the Headteacher's Study

Road to Christmas

School started its build up to Christmas today with a packed diary of events for children and parents to enjoy. Assessment week has now ended so Christmas can be inter-woven with other planned learning. Christmas is always a fantastic time at Northway and the calendar reflects this.

Thank you to the 160+ parents who came to share our ChristMATHS event last Friday. This was our highest attendance in the monthly Parents in the Classroom events we have done. At Northway we like to celebrate how learning impacts our daily life and as Mrs McNeil shared, everyone uses Maths each day whether they realise it or not. Setting alarms, working out how long to cook a Turkey, using money or measuring the height of a room to see if your Christmas Tree will fit... all Maths!

Thank you for completing the feedback forms on our ParentsApp. We read each of the forms and shared the comments as well as taking on board your suggestions. We do appreciate it.

Our School Christmas tree arrived today... we are looking forward to decorating it.

St George's Hall star:

I love it when pupils come to see me to let me know about the exciting things they are doing. St George's Hall is the venue and dancing and singing is the plan! I want to wish this pupil all the best ... break a leg (theatre talk not actually!) and please come to tell me how you shone!

Thank you from me:

I want to thank everyone who came to see Mother Goose over the last two weekends. It meant so much to see children and staff in the audience. I tried to catch as many as I could afterwards to say hello. I hope everyone enjoyed it! Being invited to play Mother Goose this year was a very ambitious project (!) but it also gave the opportunity to put into practice all the skills I talk about for knowledge rehearsal and retention. Learning 65 pages of a script certainly put this to the test.

If your child enjoys acting, signing or dancing, why not ask about local classes or clubs? We will also be starting our Performance Club in the new year. Thanks again! Mr Harg
